Kevin, a two-time Best Lawyers in America® Lexington "Workers' Compensation Defense" Lawyer of the Year, practices extensively in the area of workers' compensation defense, representing insureds of workers' compensation carriers and self-insured employers. He is also an experienced civil litigator in the areas of premises liability, insurance defense, contract disputes and estate contests, having successfully tried numerous jury and bench trials across the state of Kentucky. His litigation experience includes appellate cases before the Kentucky Court of Appeals and the Kentucky Supreme Court. His experience in workers' compensation defense includes liability assessments, defense of injury and death claims, settlement negotiations/mediations, medical fee disputes, defense and initiation of re-openings, and workers' compensation subrogation claims.

EXPERIENCE

Representation of workers' compensation carriers insureds and self-insured employers before Administrative Law Judges, the Workers' Compensation Board, Kentucky Court of Appeals and Kentucky Supreme Court since 1996.

Successful representation of workers' compensation carriers and self-insured employers in workers' compensation subrogation lawsuits in jurisdictions across Kentucky.

Frequent presenter at Kentucky Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section meetings.
